Bond Income, the trading name of Trustees Australia (AFSL 260038) and Cashwerkz FI Ltd (AFSL 283119) ('Bond Income') provides general financial product advice only. The information in this website is for general information purposes only and does not purport to contain all matters relevant to any particular or financial instrument. It is not intended to be a recommendation, offer or invitation to purchase, sell or otherwise deal in securities or other investments. Bond Income shall not be liable for any errors, omissions, defects or misrepresentations in the information or for any loss or damage (whether direct or indirect) suffered by persons who use or rely on the information contained here.

Any information or advice has been provided by Bond Income without taking account of your objectives, financial situation and needs. Because of this, you should, before acting on any advice from Bond Income, consider the appropriateness of the advice, having regard to your objectives, financial situation and needs. If this document, or any advice, relates to the acquisition, or possible acquisition, of a particular financial product or security (commonly referred to as 'bonds'), you should obtain a product disclosure statement or information memorandum relating to the product or bond and consider the statement before making any decision about whether to acquire the product or bond.

Neither Bond Income, nor any of its directors, authorised representatives, employees, or agents, makes any representation or warranty as to the reliability, accuracy, or completeness, of this document or any advice. Nor do they accept any liability or responsibility arising in any way (including negligence) for errors in, or omissions from, this document or advice. Bond Income, its staff and related parties earn fees and revenue from dealing in the securities or bonds as principal or otherwise and may have an interest in any securities or bonds mentioned in this document. Any reference to credit ratings of companies, entities or financial products must only be relied upon by a 'wholesale client' as that term is defined in section 761G of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth). Bond Income strongly recommends that you seek independent accounting, financial, taxation, and legal advice, tailored to your specific objectives, financial situation or needs, prior to making any investment decision. Bond Income does not provide tax advice and is not a registered tax agent or tax (financial) advisor, nor are any of Bond Income's staff or authorised representatives. Bond Income does not make a market in the securities or products that may be referred to in this document.

An investment in notes or corporate bonds should not be compared to a bank deposit. Notes and corporate bonds have a greater risk of loss of some or all of an investor's capital when compared to bank deposits. Past performance of any product described on any communication from Bond Income is not a reliable indication of future performance. Forecasts contained in this document are predictive in character and based on assumptions specified in the document and generally available at the time and no reliance should be placed on the accuracy of any forecast information. The actual results may differ substantially from the forecasts and are subject to change without further notice. Bond Income is not licensed to provide foreign exchange hedging or deal in foreign exchange contracts services. Bond Income may quote to you an estimated yield when you purchase a bond. This yield may be calculated by Bond Income on either A) a yield to maturity date basis; or B) a yield to early redemption date basis. Some bond issuances include multiple early redemption dates and prices, therefore the realised yield earned by you on the bond may differ from the yield estimated or quoted by Bond Income at the time of your purchase.
